Long Brancu, Aug. 22. - The first grand com imentary nop or the walters of the Continuta noted began to-night at 10 o'c.ock, in the national distagroom, in the lost wing of the hotel. The dickets were $1 cach. A reliminary circular issued several weeks ago set forth the manifold attractions of the first couring hop in the tellowing language the most elegant of the season. Refreshments will be under the succession of a competent entere and a grand band will be in attendance. Ladies fresdes rooms will be under the auspices of a commottee of ladges "

There have airen'y been two colored balls at the Branch this season, but they were given by the buil beys, and of course could not be expected to be sa select as the present. The consequence was that flatter of pleasurable anticipation was aroused in the breasts of all the colored elife within a ragios of twenty miles, and over two hundred fifty tickete were readily disposed of The afternoon trains brought their quota of bru-gettes, gallants, and beauties, and the interval was spent in the delightful | urry and excitement of the solled. The room was decorated with much taste. At the further end a raised platform had been erect od for the use of the musicians. It was draped wit a large American flag. On the wall at the bac another large flag was festooned, flanked by two amaller flue, and in the c nire hung a wreath o overgreens. The immaculate white musily curtain were gracefully looped up, so as to aftord an uno structed view of the back yard on one side and Beimboli's block on the other. Between the cu trance doors testoons of another national flag adde beauty to the walls, and on either side wall a parti colored banner of the Boston Express Company kingly loaned for the occasion by Capt. He denounced the present municipal authorities as corrupt and recreamt to the trust reproved in them by the people. The Boctor than invited the audience to join the orgenization, but explained that while men of whatever astionality would be received, those processing the Catholic faith were not eligible for membership. The Doctor's remarks were loudly applianced, and as an evidence of the sincerity of the feeing which promited it, every man in the hall, without a solitary exception, walked up to the President's deal and signed the roll.

CAMPING IN THE CATSKILLS.

How a Little Girl Killed a Rattlesnake A Datchman and his Dog after a Bear-Likewise the Bear after the Dutchman.

IN CAMP, CATSELL MOUNTAINS, Aug. 12 .- Thi s a land of berry pickers. The mountains are in if men, women, and children, in search of the much overed whertieberry, and by wagon loads they are aken over rugged roads to be shipped down the Hudson. All around our encampment in this moun tain wilderness are the scenes of busy life and in dustry visible. The weather here has all along been delightfully cool. A prevalence of smoky atmost phere has sadly interfered with grand views from magnificent distances, yet notwithstanding this the Rottlesnakes lave been very troublesome this sea son among these mountains. The largest one cap tured so far this cummer was killed on Priday last ome four miles south of the Mountain House, t little girl 12 years of age, named Mary Somers The girl was out picking betries, and seeing the reptile coiled up under a bush, took a stone and tyrew it on his spakeship and fortunately crushed his head. The sanke measured something over four feet in length and had seventeen rattles. This would inshible the table had seventeen rattles. This would inshible the table he was almosteen rears old. WANTON MURDER BY CAPT. LUNT OF THE SHIP NEVADA.

Some Witnesses Thrust into Joil in Ric Janeiro, and Others Sent to New York to be Tried on Charge of Mutiny-The Sailors' Side of the Story. In a cell on the top corridor of the Ludlow treet jail are Allen F. Parker of Springfold, Mass., John Nevil of Ireland, William F. Long of British North America, and James Watters of Pollacelock hey are old and intelligent sailors. They belonge: o the ship Nevada, and are under arrest on charge of muting. Yesterday Parker and is companio told a straightforward story of their makingatment. The saip Nevada, with Capt. Lunt as commander William Burgess, first mate, Allen F. Packer, secon mate, and a complement of seamen, sailed from Bo on for Rio de Janeiro on the 17.5 of May last. On the fourth night out Capt. Lunt summone I the crew alt, and told them that he intended to send Parket forward and take James Sanderson from the fore castle to fill his place. Parker, he said, was no qualified for his billet, and that therefore he has elected James Sanderson. Mr. Parker replied that be had shipped as second mate, and hence he objected to any reduction in his rank. James Hill, a Smart young fellow, then spoke up:

"Captain, Sanderson shipped before the mast, and we think that he ought to stay there." Contain Lunt, suddenly enraced, turned toward Hill and said: "Look here, my man, I'VE GOT YOU MARKED.

and I'il straighten you out before we get to Rio, if u ain't G- d- careful " Several of the crew were ready to approve the change provided the captain would give them watch or walch.

Captain Lwat told them he was master of his vos sek and would do about that matter as he G-dplaned.
